INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF GAMING ADVISORS (IAGA)
AND THE GAMING REGULATORS EUROPEAN FORUM (GREF)
ANNOUNCE JOINT 2016 CONFERENCE

Las Vegas, NV – The International Association of Gaming Advisors (IAGA) and the Gaming Regulators European Forum (GREF) announced today that the two organizations will hold a joint 2016 International Gaming Summit May 31 through June 2, 2016 at the Westin Dragonara Resort in St. Julian's, Malta. As a premier event that will bring together leaders and regulators from all global gaming sectors, the combined International Gaming Summit will provide operators, suppliers, attorneys, investors, bankers, regulators and other advisors with an unparalleled opportunity to meet and discuss the top issues facing gaming today.

"IAGA is thrilled to be holding our 2016 Summit in Malta, a stunning and historically significant European nation that is also home to a dynamic and thriving gaming industry," commented IAGA President-elect Martha Sabol. "As our association's first visit to the country, we are confident that our global delegates will appreciate the opportunity to combine their gaming education with the opportunity to network with their industry colleagues in such a historical setting. We look forward to working with GREF and the Malta Gaming Authority to make next year's Summit the must-attend gaming industry event of 2016."

"GREF is delighted to be returning to the stunning Island of Malta having first held our Annual Conference there in 2002" noted GREF Chairman, Dr Jason Lane. "This will be the first time that Gref is holding a joint conference with another organization and the opportunity to work with IAGA will offer both organisations an enhanced programme and we are positive that our members will find this both interesting and informative. Malta is a reputable jurisdiction in the remote gaming space and there is no doubt that the MGA will be ideal hosts".

Registration for the 2016 Summit will be available online at www.theiaga.org beginning November 1, 2015 and for GREF in March 2016. For additional details or to learn about Summit sponsorship opportunities, please contact IAGA Executive Director Kirsten Clark at director@theiaga.org or GREF (gref.net@gmail.com)
